Performing Arts Celebration!

We were blessed to hold two fantastic performing arts evenings just before half term! They brought together so much talent and - above all - joy! It was wonderful to see such a variety of performances brought to the stage. The children all performed with confidence and energy! Many thanks to all the children involved for their hard work and charm!

Photos will be uploaded onto the school website next week.

Reminder: World Book Day Celebration!

We're excited to remind everyone that we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday, 7th March! Students are invited to come to school dressed as their favorite book character if they wish. This is a fantastic opportunity to celebrate the joy of reading and express your love for literature through fun and creative costumes!

Please remember that dressing up is optional, so students can choose to participate in whatever way they feel comfortable. We can't wait to see all the imaginative outfits and celebrate our favorite stories together!

Happy reading!

New Haw Community School Book Fair

We will be holding another Book Fair next week, between Monday 3rd March and Friday 7th March 2025. All children will have the opportunity over the course of Monday and Tuesday to visit the Book Fair during school hours and browse the books on offer. Each child will be given 'My Book Fair Wish List' where they'll be able to record the names of the books they like the look of. This list will then come home with your child and you will be able to purchase the books online using the information on the sheet.

Any books purchased generate vouchers for the school to spend with Scholastic. We are very grateful to all parents who purchase books at the Fair as this directly benefits the school. However, we recognise in the current financial climate, not everyone will be able to purchase books and we don't want you to feel pressured to do so.
